

REMEMBER

WHEN

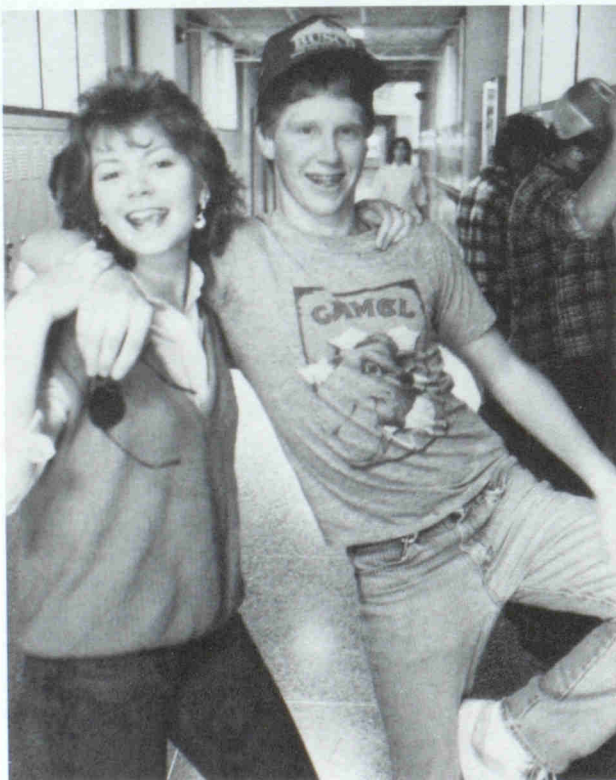

Deland-Weldon High School

1985-1986

The year of 1985-86 was a year full of joys, tragedies, and world-wide excitement. Some of the things that happened around the world were: The tragedy of the Space Shuttle Challenger, which we recognized by lowering the flag to half-mast. This year also included many fund-raising events. Among these were Live Aid, which beamed 60 major bands to a billion people. Farm Aid was held in Champaign, IL. to raise money for America's Farmers. Hands Across America, which passed by Deland-Weldon High School, was organized to raise money for America's poor.

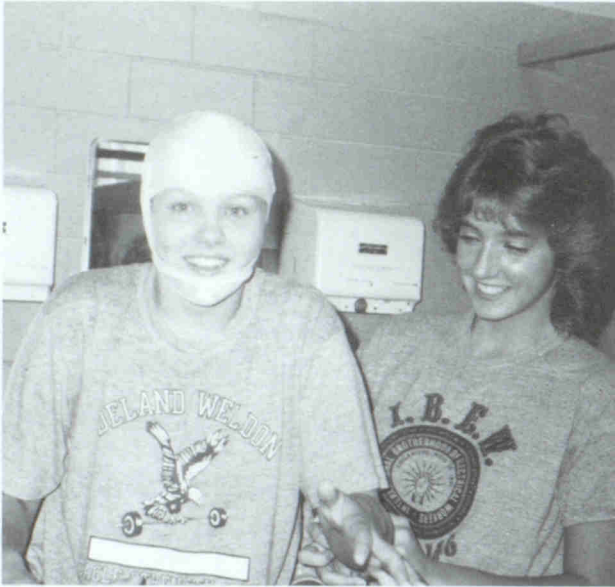

Our school year was also filled with success, losses, and excitement. The play "Deadly Earnest" was a smashing success. Kenny Parish, our custodian of 34 years, retired. A mural was painted on the library wall by the Art I class. The J.V. volleyball team received second place in the Conference. Overall, we had an exciting year and have many memories to hold on to.

1. Neely Reeser and Melainie Carr show excitement at winning a volleyball game. 2. Rhonda Adkins is hard at work. 3. Ruby Heiberg and Kenny Blazek have some fun in between classes. 4. Nikki Wingstrom gives Brian Eatock a big friendly hug.

1. The flag is at half-mast after the Space Shuttle Challenger disaster. 2. The Spanish Club enjoys a feast after laboring away in the kitchen. 3. Chris Reeser and Shannon Clark still have smiles on their faces after Slave Day. 4. Sophomores goof off during P.E. 5. The baseball team enjoys an exciting game.

1. Biology II class begins the funeral procession for their cats. 2. Matt Baker, a typical freshman carrying his doll. 3. Neely Reeser helps Nikki Wingstrom wrap up after an injury. 4. Mrs. Shaw guards the local water pipe. 5. Tony Thoms, looks are deceiving!

We, the yearbook staff, dedicate the 1985-86 yearbook to you.

In Memory of J. C. Jordan

"For Him"

*Shining blue eyes
Pretty blond hair
Touching so many
But no longer there . . .
So full of life
No longer to be
Hurt in the hearts
Of those you did see . . .*

*You're still in our hearts
And still in our minds
Those who knew you
As one of a kind . . .
We love you, we'll miss you
And we'll do the best we can
To remember the good times and try to understand*

Each school year is unique. Our nation will think of '85-'86 as the year the space shuttle Challenger exploded, the Bears won the Super Bowl, and Hands Across America touched the hearts of everyone.

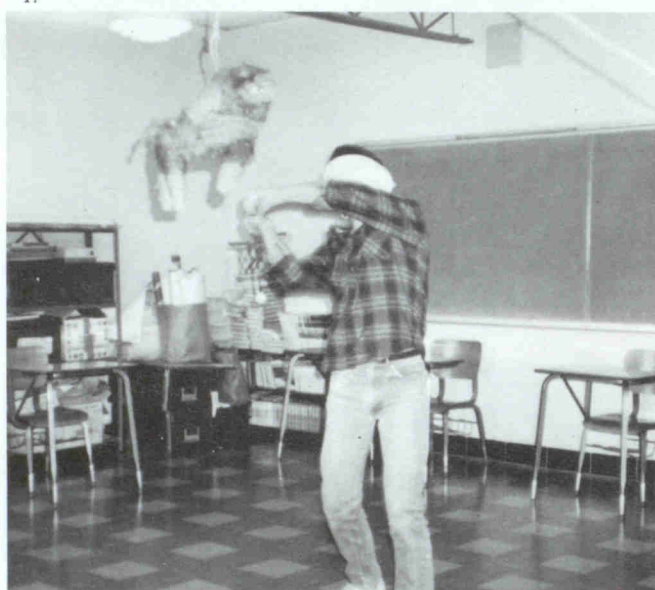

We, too, remember these things; but we also recall studying, caring, working, winning, and sometimes losing as we shared our days together at D-W. These moments we have tried to capture in a treasure chest of memorabilia. Examine each page carefully — smile and Remember When.
